Full job description

Your new company

Our client aims to focus upon quality workmanship to their clients and pride themselves on their customer service and team culture they have created. Having built solid relationships with their clients, they have a strong workload and are looking at adding an experienced and qualified maintenance plumber to join their growing team & hit the ground running!

Your new role

You will be working within our clients plumbing division. Working within their team of experienced plumbers, you will have a strong aptitude for maintenance plumbing works including; evaporative cooling systems, basic diagnosing of appliances and hot water systems, installation and maintenance of hot water and gas services, leaking toilets and taps, general plumbing, roof leaks, roof restorations and gas appliance servicing.

What you'll need to succeed

- VBA Registration & Qualification
- Valid Driver's Licence
- Own hand tools and basic power tools
- Be available to start immediately
- A Type A Gas ticket would be highly favourable as their scope of works may require someone with this ticket from time to time.

What you'll get in return

In return for your commitment and hard work you will receive;

- A great salary of 80-100k per year
- Full time hours
- Superannuation
- Work Uniform/PPE

- Work vehicle & tools provided
- Supportive team environment
